

TINA PERRY
President, OWN: Oprah Winfrey Network

Named president of OWN: Oprah Winfrey Network in 2019, Tina Perry oversees all operations and creative areas of the network, reporting to OWN Chairman and CEO Oprah Winfrey. Her leadership is a driving force behind the network's ongoing evolution to become the #1 destination for African American viewers. Perry also oversees OWN's robust digital division including the Watch OWN app, the network's award-winning website Oprah.com and its growing podcast business.

Perry was instrumental in OWN's successful launch into scripted programming with popular drama series Queen Sugar, Cherish the Day, Greenleaf, The Haves and the Have Nots and the Peabody Award-winning David Makes Man. She oversees the continuing success of the network's lineup of unscripted hits that includes Iyanla: Fix My Life, Love & Marriage: Huntsville, Black Women OWN the Conversation, Family or Fiancé, Black Love and Ready to Love in addition to the Daytime Emmy-award winning Super Soul Sunday. She has also shepherded the creation of special OWN Spotlight programming that tackles important issues affecting Black women today.

Perry serves on the OWN Board of Directors, The Paley Center for Media's Los Angeles Board of Governors, The Television Academy Foundation's Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors of The Friends of the Saban Community Clinic. She has a passion for art and also serves on the California Institute of the Arts (CalArts) Board of Trustees, Stanford University's Cantor Arts Center Advisory Board, and is a founding board member of The Mistake Room, LA's independent, non-profit global platform for contemporary art and ideas.

This year she was named to Ebony magazine's Power 100 list and Multichannel News named her a "Wonder Woman" for 2020.
