

Andrew Hannibal graduated from Cardozo Law School in 2012. Andrew is currently Counsel for Sesame Workshop, the non-profit independent production company behind countless children's programs including Sesame Street, Ghostwriter and Esme and Roy. In his role at Sesame Workshop, Andrew handles a variety of matters including those relating to rights acquisition for film and television, development and production of new multimedia programs, publishing, new media and digital licensing