

Loeb & Loeb LLP - Advanced Media and Technology (AMT) Attorney

Loeb & Loeb's Advanced Media and Technology (AMT) department is seeking an attorney with 1-3 years of experience to join in its Chicago office.

The AMT department is a multi-disciplinary department with nearly 60 attorneys that have deep expertise in counseling and transactions in the advertising, marketing, media, technology, intellectual property, and data privacy space.

The ideal candidate will have strong experience with drafting and negotiating significant commercial transactions involving technology, data privacy, and marketing-related services, as well as meaningful exposure to advertising, marketing, technology, intellectual property, mobile, social or emerging media, and privacy issues. Successful candidates will have excellent drafting, writing and analytical abilities, strong interpersonal and communication skills, accurate and strong attention to detail, high level of organization, and the ability to manage multiple projects and interface directly with clients.

Loeb's AMT department works with many Fortune 500 clients in a variety of industries, including automotive, financial, technology, telecommunications, food, consumer package goods, among others, as well as numerous advertising and marketing agencies. Superior academic credentials and applicable state bar admission are required.
